

I strongly urge you to block any further consolidation of the media. True democracy depends on accurate, varied points of view and coverage.